

WE OPEN IN TORRANCE

Verse

A troupe of Aerospace Players are we,
Not stars in the Pantages are we,
But just a simple band,
Who roam through the Southland,
Dispensing gags and frequent levity.

Mere folk who get distracted we may,
No experience is needed we say,
We're just a crazy club,
With real jobs in the hub,
Around the map of the greater South Bay.

1st Refrain

We open in Torrance,
We next play the Norris,
Then onto Hermosa,

Lots of bars in Hermosa

The next jump is South Bay
That biggish piggish menace,
Then Westchester, then Westminster,
Then we open again, where?

2nd Refrain

We open in Torrance,
We next play the Norris,
Then onto Hermosa,

Lots of kids in Hermosa

The next jump is South Bay

That lumpy dumpy menace,
Then Westchester, then Westminster,
Then we open again, where?

3rd Refrain

We open in Torrance,
We next play the Norris,
Then onto Hermosa,

Lots of plastic in Hermosa

The next jump is South Bay
That stingy dingy menace,
Then Westchester, then Westminster,
Then we open again, where?

4th Refrain

We open in Torrance,
We next play the Norris,
Then onto Hermosa,

Not much parking in Hermosa

The next jump is South Bay
That teeny weenie menace,
Then Westchester, then Westminster,
Then we open again, where?

In Torrance!

John Nolan
July 2005